

STUCK IN A CAREER RUT?

Are you ready for a change? Find out what the Land Down Under could offer you with the help of Ozhealth Australasia!

So, you are considering a change. We don't blame you. Change can be beneficial, we all need it from time to time. Change of scenery can invigorate you, it can help you sharpen your focus. And what better place to reinvent yourself, than Australia?

A coastal lifestyle with sandy beaches, sunny skies and all-year-round warm climate are definitely some of the perks of living in Australia. And, for those sick of hectic city life, settling down in rural practices in quiet country towns in the Australian outback is definitely an ideal escape: picturesque nature, laid back folks and lots of anecdotal "No worries, mate!"

But, the best part is – wait for it! – there is strong and steady demand when it comes to job opportunities in healthcare. Both Australia and NZ are facing a shortage of permanent and locum GPs, the remuneration is high and working conditions are often superior.

WHERE TO START?

Needless to say that the healthcare landscape is changing rapidly these days. As in any other industry, we are witnessing an increasing competitiveness with a globally mobile workforce and hyper-connectivity that make businesses and candidates feel under pressure.

Everyone has to be on alert for new opportunities and be accessible at all times. Finding the right job requires constant web-scanning and with large quantities of information available out there in the cyberspace things can be time-consuming and often confusing. Add to that the migration procedures, lodgement of various paperwork and many will get disheartened.
