About Caloundra.

Caloundra is the southernmost town on the Sunshine Coast, in subtropical Queensland. Supported by a lively tourism industry, Caloundra is full of locations promising fun in the sun. Golden Beach is a popular spot for swimming, windsurfing, boating and fishing; Kings Beach is the main beach in Caloundra, it is patrolled all year, has a waterside saltwater pool, a children's play area, and is ideal for families; Bulcock Beach is a trendy spot, with boardwalks and piers, plus cafés and restaurants close to the beach, perfect for anyone looking to spend a whole day relaxing by the sea.

The town has several heritage-listed sites that highlight Caloundra's coastal, holiday setting, including the Caloundra Lighthouses, the Tripcony Hibiscus Caravan Park, and the Kings Beach Bathing Pavilion.

Visitors and locals can enjoy a walk or a bike ride along the Caloundra Coastal Path, a 25km track between Caloundra and Kawana, that accesses historic sites, lookouts, nature reserves, as well as cafes and shops. Caloundra also has a great weekend market featuring fresh local produce such as seafood, fruit and veg, and deli foods. Just 90kms north of Brisbane, Caloundra is the perfect destination for anyone looking for a relaxed holiday-town atmosphere, without being too far from the big city.

About Eumundi.

Eumundi is a small historic town located in the hinterland of the Sunshine Coast, with a friendly community, and vibrant culture enriched by local art, music, and food. The town is widely known for its weekly markets – held on Wednesdays, Fridays and Saturdays – which are packed with excellent local produce, arts and crafts, and live music, and held in the shade of beautiful heritage listed fig trees.

Foodies will love the Imperial Hotel and Eumundi Brewery, where patrons can enjoy delicious local delicacies, hearty pub meals, and modern dishes, as well as sample locally made craft beers – all while enjoying live music in a handsome beer garden. There are plenty of retailers and eateries in Eumundi, making it a popular destination for tourists looking for a shopping holiday, who will be pleased to find bookstores, jewellery studios, designer clothing stores, art galleries, and more.

Eumundi is a great place to take a break from city-living, and enjoy the colours and comforts of a friendly country town.

About Maleny.

Maleny is a small town located on the eastern slopes of the Blackall Range, renowned for its spectacular mountain scenery. The town is popular with day-trippers and weekenders from the surrounding areas and Brisbane, who come to see the local art galleries and studios, boutique B&Bs, organic produce stores, specialist shops, and cosy cafés.

Hikers and sightseers travel from far and wide, keen to experience the dramatic landscape of the Glasshouse Mountains, and the dense rainforests that cover the area. Artists and craftspeople also often make their way to Maleny, seeking inspiration from the town's gorgeous natural setting, clear fresh air, and idyllic atmosphere. Maleny is the place to be for anyone looking to get out into untamed nature, while at the same time enjoying the unique and refreshing hospitality and culture of a rural Australian town.

About Montville.

Montville is a famously beautiful town, perched on the ridge of the majestic Blackall Range. Within the town there is a conspicuous European ambience, as the quaint Tudor-style cottages that line the streets remind tourists of the mountain villages in places like Austria and Switzerland. Visitors of Montville will find ample opportunities for indulgence and relaxation, with numerous confectioners and chocolatiers, tea houses and cafes dotted across town, all serving prized local, Fairtrade, organic products. Flame Hill Vinyard is a popular local destination, where patrons can relax and enjoy delicious, fresh local foods, coupled with award winning wines either in the restaurant or with a picnic in a scenic nook of the property. Montville is also a hub for the arts, with work from local and visiting artists on display in the many galleries dotted across town. Just outside town there are numerous breath-taking natural wonders, including Kondalilla National Park, where you can walk in the cool shade of the rainforest canopy, listening to the birds, and seeking out waterfalls, tranquil pools and bubbling creeks. Montville is the ultimate destination for seekers of scene-change, as the town couples Australian regional charm with a delightful European character.

About Noosa.

Noosa is a picturesque town on Queensland's Sunshine Coast. This lively resort town is one of Australia's most popular holiday destinations, and is easily recognised by its jewel-bright, blue waters and pristine white sands, which feature heavily Australian postcards. Noosa is only 90 minutes out of the state capital, Brisbane, meaning that it is always bustling with weekenders seeking surf, sun, and sand. There are plenty of water-based activities for beach-goers to enjoy, including surfing, sailing, kayaking, paddle-boarding, and snorkelling. Between July and October, lucky visitors will have the opportunity to cruise offshore and swim with humpback whales.

Noosa's sparkling beaches are complemented by lush green, subtropical rainforests, full of walking tracks, and bursting with birdlife. Noosa is also home to Australia Zoo, meaning that animal lovers can meet the local native wildlife in the national park, and get to know Noosa's international guests in the zoo. Visitors and residents of Noosa are spoilt for choice when it comes to relaxation, as the town is furnished with plenty of resorts (all with their own added luxuries), trendy retailers, clubs, cafés, and stylish restaurants in scenic locations, serving up the fines cuisine of coastal Queensland. With its stunning scenery and vibrant atmosphere, Noosa is the perfect location for escaping to nature, and enjoying the iconic Australian coastal lifestyle.

About Sippy Downs.

Sippy Downs is a serene, family-friendly suburb located on the Sunshine Coast in Queensland. Settled between Mooloolah National Park, and the Maroochy Bushland Botanic Gardens, the suburb is surrounded by lush subtropical greenery. In the National Park, locals can explore magnificent eucalypt forests and tea-tree swamps, and see the dazzling blooms of native wildflowers that grow in the area. The Botanic Gardens are full of ferns and flowers, as well as sculptures, and towering trees brimming with native birdlife. Pristine, enticing blue lakes are dotted across the area, and provide the perfect setting for weekend picnics, and waterside activities. Kayaking, canoeing and boating down the tranquil Mooloolah River are also popular water-based pastimes, and Sippy Downs is just minutes away from Mooloolabah, a popular spot for swimming, surfing, and relaxing in the sun by the sea.

Sippy Downs is also home to Australia's newest university: The University of the Sunshine Coast. The establishment of the university in 1996 has facilitated steady growth and development in the suburb, and today Sippy Downs is considered to be a 'university town' – home to a vibrant, dynamic, and creative community. Sippy Downs is the ideal location for anyone looking for quiet, suburban comfort that doesn't stray too far from the breath-taking beauty of Queensland's native flora and fauna, and coastal charm.
